

JUNE 2026 NEWSLETTER

WELCOME, JUNE!

Hello families!

As we step into the month of June, we're excited to welcome the warmth and sunshine of summer! This month brings longer days, outdoor fun, and plenty of opportunities for learning through play. We'll be exploring seasonal themes, celebrating Father's Day, and encouraging creativity with nature-inspired activities. Please keep an eye out for updates on water play days, summer safety tips, and special events planned for the coming weeks.

Let's make it a joyful and engaging start to the summer season!

REMINDERS

June is officially designated as Children's Awareness Month in the United States. This month is dedicated to raising awareness about the well-being, rights, and needs of children. It's a time to focus on issues like child abuse prevention, promoting children's health and education, and ensuring all children have access to the resources they need to thrive.

Here's a more detailed look at Children's Awareness Month:

Purpose:

- Raise awareness about important issues affecting children, such as child poverty, education, and healthcare.
- Promote advocacy and activism for children's rights and well-being.
- Celebrate the resilience and potential of children.
